

MEHA Conference Planning Packet

THE CONTENTS OF THIS PACKET ARE INTENDED FOR USE BY ANY MEHA CONFERENCE PLANNING COMMITTEE

Last Update April 8, 2013

Welcome MEHA Conference Planning Committee!

Thank you for participating with the planning of the upcoming conference. Enclosed are forms and materials designed to assist with conference planning and implementation. Many of the materials are generic, allowing for insertions or deletions as needed. Early planning with an aggressive pursuit of quality speakers, exhibitors and sponsors will help make the conference a success.

Planning committees generally meet on a monthly basis in order to meet deadlines and coordinate responsibilities. Meeting minutes are a key component to ensure that each committee member knows what is happening and what is expected. The assignment of recording meeting minutes should be delegated to a very organized member. It is important that minutes be distributed as soon as possible after the meeting to ensure understanding of primary assignments, duties and deadlines. Remember to maintain good records, as all final information will be turned over to the designated Board Liaison for pass down to next year's conference committee chairperson.

It may be necessary to communicate with other MEHA Committee Chairs. The Committee Charges, MEHA Policies and the list of MEHA Committees are available as separate documents on the website.

The Board Liaison will also answer questions, ensure deadlines are met, provide feedback to the Executive Board and provide guidance to the committee. Make sure the Board Liaison is included in committee activities (including agendas, meetings and minutes). Each committee member is also welcome to attend MEHA Board meetings for ideas, discussion and direction.

Remember that the Michigan Environmental Health Association is a team of members representing the Environmental Health profession. The success of our conferences affects future conferences as well as MEHA membership and participation. Please encourage other MEHA members to become involved.

Sincerely,

MEHA Executive Board

General Information

Previous Conference Chair: Contact him/her for historical information and exhibitor/speaker information.

MEHA Executive Board: The MEHA Executive Board (a.k.a. the Board) is comprised of eleven members, each holding one of the following positions: President, Past President, President–Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, UP Representative, Northern Representative, Southeast Representative, Southwest Representative and 2 Members-at-Large. Each person elected serves a 3-year term on the Board and is responsible for specific duties. A current list can be found at www.meha.net.

MEHA Board Liaison: Attends meetings, answers questions and provides information to and feedback from the Board; provides guidance and support to corresponding committee chair.

MEHA Treasurer: Provides tax-exempt forms and provides for payment of approved expenses when appropriate forms are submitted (speaker re-imbusement form and other expenses as approved by committee chair).

MEHA/MALPH Office: Call (517) 485-0660 or email info@malph.org for the current office manager. Many of the supplies needed for the conference are located at the MEHA/MALPH office.

Publishing & News Releases: All postings for the website should be sent to the Website Committee Chairperson. Information should also be published in the MEHA journal. MEHA has the ability to broadcast emails to most of the membership. Contact your Board Liaison for information.

Communication: MEHA letterhead or the MEHA fax form shall be used for correspondence with speakers and exhibitors. Letterhead is available at the MEHA office. If using email, follow proper email etiquette.

Continuing Education: The Continuing Education Committee will track MEHA Continuing Education Units. Check with the Chair for current procedure.

Speakers: Speaker meals and breaks are covered for the day they are speaking. Hotel costs are typically covered for the night before their presentation. However, the speakers presenting after 2:00 pm may want to stay over the night after their presentation. Each speaker that wishes to attend other days of the conference must pay and register for the days they are not speaking unless otherwise negotiated and approved by the conference chair.

Award Winners: MEHA will pay for lunch of nonmember award winners or other award winners that are unable to attend the entire conference. Coordinate with the Awards Committee Chair to insure awards are ordered, which winners are attending, the printing of banquet cards and enlisting a host for the awards banquet. One guest meal may also be covered under the Conference budget.

Google Documents/Cloud Computing: MEHA is utilizing cloud storage for many of the documents you will use for conference planning. Contact your Board Liaison for more information.

Space required: the MEHA AEC uses several rooms for purposes other than the educational sessions. Please keep this in mind when scheduling.

- 1) MALEHA/MEHA joint board meeting on Tuesday before the conference (30-40 people). Ask current MALEHA President if teleconferencing or any other equipment is needed and inform him/her on costs.
- 2) MEHA annual business meeting after elections of new officers. Usually Thursday afternoon.
- 3) MEHA award banquet, usually Thursday at lunch.
- 4) Silent auction (must be lockable), if needed.
- 5) REHS Exam, if offering.
- 6) MEHA board meeting on Friday.

Sample Governor's Proclamation Request

Abby Stahl
Special Correspondence Manager
Office of the Governor
P.O. 30013
Lansing, MI 48909

RE: Request for Governor's Proclamation
Michigan Environmental Health Week
March XX – XX, 20XX

Dear Ms. Stahl:

Please accept this letter of request for the Governor to proclaim March XX – XX, 20XX as Michigan Environmental Health Week. As in past years, the Michigan Environmental Health Association (MEHA) requests that Michigan Environmental Health Week coincide with the week of MEHA's Annual Educational Conference (AEC).

The Michigan Environmental Health Association's XXnd Annual Educational Conference will be held March xx – xx, 20xx at the XXX in XXX, Michigan. MEHA's membership base includes approximately 700 environmental health professionals employed at the local and state level, as well as members with institutional and academic environmental health programs. More information is available about MEHA at: www.meha.net.

The Annual Educational Conference will include speakers on various environmental health issues in the area of food safety and sanitation, water quality, on-site sewage disposal, indoor air quality, liability issues, vector control and disaster relief.

Enclosed please find a copy of the 2004 and 2005 Governor's Proclamations for Michigan Environmental Health Week, per your request. The dates for the 2006 proclamation should be March XX – XX, 20XX to coincide with the Michigan Environmental Health Association's Annual Educational Conference.

If you have any questions regarding our request, please contact me at ***

Please forward the Governor's Proclamation to me at the address listed below.

Sincerely,

Budget Information

Conference Registration Fee: Registration fees should include the cost of meeting room rental, food, beverage and other costs that deemed reasonable to be shared by attendees. Registration fees should be set for the entire conference and a single day. There are several registration categories: Member, Non member, Student, Sponsor, Exhibitor and Speaker. All registration fees must be approved by the Board.

1. Member rate: set by the conference planning committee using the budget tool.
2. Non Member rate: set at the member rate plus the membership fee plus $5.
3. Student rate; shall be set around $50-$80 to cover meals only.
4. Sponsor and Exhibitors: refer to the section of this document.
5. All other registration rates should be reflected in the conference budget.

Refunds: Refer to the MEHA policy on refunds, as a full refund may not be available.

Taxes: Add appropriate hospitality tax to the cost of meals when estimating the budget. While MEHA is exempt from State Sales Tax, facilities may have many other resort taxes.

Online Registration: If MEHA is contracted or set up for online registrations, there may be associated fees, taxes and credit card charges to be aware of when estimating the budget.

Awards: The awards committee shall extend a personal invitation to all award recipients and coordinate award winner needs with the conference planner such as lunch choice and arrival times. The AEC award banquet is free for the recipient. The awards are purchased by the MEHA general fund and should not be included in the AEC budget. However, printing of the award program should be included in the AEC budget as the Award Committee does not have a budget of its own.

Gifts & Prizes: All items given out to members, participants, speakers should be reviewed by the MEHA board prior to purchasing. The purchase of these items should be reflected in the budget.

Speaker Reimbursement: It is a generally accepted policy that government employees will not get reimbursed by MEHA for hotel rooms or mileage unless they are speakers and have a letter from their employer stating that they are not otherwise being reimbursed. Mileage must include a Google or Bing map with a start and end point. MEHA pays the current IRS per diem for mileage.

Grants: Specific costs may be covered by a grant. Detailed records of costs must be maintained to insure reimbursement to MEHA. An estimated summary of charges should be provided to the Grant and Training Committee Chair three to four months before the event. A final summary should be provided as soon as possible (it will be dependent on the final bill from the facility).

RE:

[Salutation]

On behalf of MEHA, thank you for participating as a speaker at the Southwest Michigan Environmental Health Association. Your acceptance of our request is greatly appreciated and we look forward to seeing you.

MEHA has been providing relevant information to the environmental health profession since 1934. The MEHA membership consists of over 400 professionals in local, district and state government, colleges and universities, institutions and the private sector. The Southwest Sanitarian Seminar covers current environmental and public health topics; including drinking water, sewage treatment, recreational water, shelter, air and food safety, among others. Over XX people are expected to attend the seminar.

You are scheduled to speak [Date] at [Time].

MEHA will provide a laptop computer and LCD projector for your session. However, any presentation using a projector and laptop computer must use Microsoft Office PowerPoint. Please provide your presentation to the planning committee on either CD Rom or Flash Drive.

MEHA will not be able to provide copy service during the seminar. If you would like to give hard copies of your presentation to attendees, please bring them with you. If you prefer, we can have a sign-up sheet available after your session for participants who would like to receive materials via email.

You can find more information and directions to ***.

Please complete the enclosed Speaker Registration Form as soon as possible. This form must be submitted to confirm your participation in the conference and to promote your session in conference advertising. Should you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sample Email Request for Presentation

Hello,

You are receiving this email because you have confirmed your plans to speak at the {Conference}. Let me begin by saying we are extremely happy to have you as a speaker, and we look forward to working with you.

In planning the conference, we wanted to offer as much information and contact time as possible between our speakers and our audience, and therefore, we've scheduled speakers fairly close together, without very much time between one speaker and the next. With this in mind, the committee has decided to work proactively to make the transition between speakers as seamless as possible.

For this reason, we have decided that we will only use our own computers and projection equipment. This should enable us to save time between each presentation, and minimize any hardware-related delays. Since we will use only our own computers, we ask that you provide the following in advance:

1. Electronic copies of your presentation (either email it to us as a file attachment, or send us a cd copy via "snail mail").
2. Please let us know specifically which software you used in making your presentation (PowerPoint 2000, PowerPoint 2002, Open Office, etc.)
3. Any other special hardware or software requests (DVD-playing capability, sound, etc.)

We understand that your presentations are usually your own personal property and the result of your hard work, and we will make certain that no unauthorized reproductions are made or distributed without your permission. We also understand that you may wish to make last minute changes to your presentations, and that's fine. Our goal is to make sure we have something pre-loaded onto our machines "just in case".

With that said, please email or "snail mail" your presentations no later than * to either of the following:

Sponsorship Levels MEHA Annual Education Conference

PLATINUM -$2500

Patrons who elect this level of support are undisputed advocates of Michigan's environmental and public health goals. This generous support will assist the Michigan Environmental Health Association (MEHA) in providing a quality education conference for all attendees. This financial support will allow MEHA to host distinguished speakers from across the nation, provide distinctive programs for attendees and insure other high quality conference resources.

Platinum Sponsorship Includes -One exhibitors table in the exhibitor's hall which includes two complimentary conference registrations (includes meals, breaks and professional networking activities); one double room reservation for two nights of the conference; recognition in the conference program and during the opening address; additional signage during the conference as well as acknowledgement in the first post conference issue of the quarterly MEHA newsletter and a posting on the MEHA website. An educational break out session up to 50 minutes can be requested.

GOLD -$1200

This level of support is a critical support component for the annual education conference. This level will assist the MEHA Annual Education Conference (AEC) Committee in obtaining high quality facility equipment and with production of conference resources such as the conference program. Attendees will be provided with information on speakers, meeting times and locations, advertisers and conference updates.

Gold Sponsorship Includes -Reserves on one educational break out session for the sponsor to present information to the attendees (these sessions are 50 minutes in length); one exhibitors table in the exhibitor's hall which includes two complimentary conference registrations (includes meals, breaks and professional networking activities); and recognition in the conference program.

SILVER -$800

A silver sponsor directly assists the MEHA AEC Committee to bring quality local speakers and presenters to the conference. These speakers provide innovative perspectives to challenging environmental issues. Many expenses are incurred with recruiting quality speakers and presenters.

Silver Sponsorship Includes -One exhibitors table in the exhibitor's hall which includes one complimentary conference registration (includes meals, breaks and professional networking activities); and recognition in the conference program.

BRONZE -$500

Sponsors at this level will help to provide for breaks during the conference. These breaks are greatly appreciated by the attendees and are an optimum time for networking and visiting exhibitor tables.

Bronze Sponsorship Includes -Recognition in the conference program, signage during the break and the thanks of all the attendees!

ADDITIONAL WAYS TO SPONSOR

The MEHA AEC Committee is always in need of donated items to be used as door prizes, silent auctions items (proceeds are for the endowment fund to facilitate college scholarships), and conference appreciation/promotional bags (300). Attendees have enjoyed small advertising items like hats, rulers, pens, flashlights, and candy. Unique items are always treasured by conference attendees. MEHA is a registered non-profit 501 (C) (3) organization and your gift is tax deductible. Your donation is advertising to over 250 attendees and 50 speakers!

YOUR SUPPORT IS SINCERELY APPRECIATED!

RE: Exhibitor and Sponsor Invitation to Participate

The Michigan Environmental Health Association (MEHA) will be hosting its XXth Annual Education Conference at the Park Place Hotel in XX, Michigan on March XX, XXXX. You are warmly invited to attend, sponsor, and/or exhibit at the conference.

MEHA is a volunteer, non-profit organization dedicated to the improvement of public health through management of the environment. Our members are employed in local, district and state governments and within private industries, institutions, and universities across several fields of public health. MEHA promotes high standards in the environmental health profession and its members influence environmental health policies through the work of its various committees. Our website, www.meha.net, provides an overview of the Association and information about our membership, affiliates, and conferences.

Individuals from the public and private sector who provide expertise to the public on food protection, onsite sewage treatment, water well installations, recreational water management, environmental protection, housing safety, and occupational safety and health will attend the conference.

Four opportunities exist for you to share in this conference:

1. SPONSORS – This is your opportunity to sponsor a portion of the conference. Sponsors are prominently recognized during the conference and in the conference program. Multiple Sponsor Levels are available. Sponsors are also welcome to exhibit in the Exhibitors Hall.
2. EXHIBITORS – An Exhibitors hall will be provided during this three-day event. Exhibitors will be recognized at the conference and time will be allotted for attendees to view the exhibit area during the conference. Historically, the exhibitor viewing area has been a major draw at the conference and exhibitors have ample time to update attendees about their latest products and services. We will prominently display your business card or logo in our conference program and during conference sessions. Exhibitors who commit before XXXXX will receive a reduced rate.
3. WELCOME PACKET GIFTS - Attendees will receive welcome packets containing a variety of information and items. You may have an item that would enhance these packets. The average attendance over the three days is 250 members and 50 speakers.
4. CONFERENCE ATTENDANCE – Your opportunity to attend and participate in the conference.

If you have any questions regarding this invitation and would like to sponsor, exhibit or attend the conference please contact me by e-mail (XXX) or telephone (XXX). Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

MICHIGAN ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION

Publicity

Event Announcement

An event announcement should be sent 4-6 weeks prior to the conference. Considering budgets of individual departments and the exams that may be offered, it may be wise to send this out sooner.

- Dates & location of the conference
- Summary of schedule, including exams if any are scheduled
- Highlight sessions if appropriate
- Hotel information
- Registration fees
- MEHA website information
- CEU information
- Session schedule, description & speaker, location
- Speaker information (name, address, contact info, biography)

Website

The MEHA website is an excellent way to publicize your conference. Documents can be shared using Adobe PDF. Email the MEHA website coordinator at webmaster@meha.net for information on posting to the web.

Email

MEHA has the ability to send a single email to the entire MEHA membership using Vertical Response, an on-line marketing software tool. If you would like to publicize your event through blast email, contact your Board Liaison for more information.

Cloud Computing/Google Documents/Reference Materials

MEHA uses Google to store documents on the internet and allow multiple users to view and edit the same document at the same time. Contact the Board Liaison to receive an email address at the meha.net domain and for access to Google Documents.

Moderator Guidelines

 Annual Educational Conference

Thank you for your participation in the MEHA Annual Education Conference. If you have any questions or issues during the conference please contact ***.

Moderator: _____ Room Assignment: _____

Date: _____ Time: _____

Speakers: See program and attached biographies.

Summary of Moderator Guidelines:

- Arrive early, meet your speaker, know what A/V needs they have, make sure you have the speaker gift.
- Know the room, location of lights and emergency exits.
- Start on time and keep the speaker on schedule.
- Help facilitate questions & handouts.
- Post "Quiet Please, Session in Progress" signs outside of the room if necessary.

Speakers are encouraged arrive 2 hours prior to scheduled presentation. Contact your speaker prior to the scheduled session to ensure all their needs are met and their questions answered.

Introduction

Following are some suggestions for you to use in moderating a session of the MEHA Conference. Remember, your first priority is to your audience and your second priority is to your speaker. Any additional priorities are to neighboring audiences or exhibitors conducting business near your location. You have been placed in charge to insure order and to facilitate the transfer of information from speaker to audience. That is your primary goal!

Preparation

1. Arrive early, at least two hours before your scheduled session. Seek out and meet your speaker at your earliest opportunity. Know what they look like! Shake their hand! Learn how to pronounce their names correctly. Make them feel totally welcome and let them know you are there to serve them and will handle their needs. You are the MEHA representative. Give them the enclosed expense reimbursement form and have them forward any such requests to MEHA Administrative representatives who will review them and submit them to the MEHA Treasurer for payment. Let the speakers know that will take at least two weeks to process their honoraria. Review their biographical thumbnails and know what you're going to say in their introduction well beforehand. Know their audio/visual requirements by heart. Meet the hotel or maintenance personnel and know how to reach them, and know how to reach MALPH or conference committee members.
2. Know your room. Where is the fire exit? Can you get your audience out quickly in the event of an emergency? Where are the controls for the lights and public address system? Can you dim the lights? If you do so, does it interfere with the lights in the session next door? Make sure you are able to control temperature and ventilation in the room before the session begins. Is the MEHA lectern sign securely in place on the lectern? Most importantly, is the audio/visual equipment they have requested in place? Is it plugged in and operational? Are spare bulbs available? Is the image on their first slide or overhead focused on the screen? Are there pitchers of water and drinking glasses? Have they requested pointers or laser pointers? If they are using a VCR, is the tape cued properly? Is there compatibility between the electronics (power point, etc)? Try to think of everything. Know what to do if some A/V equipment fails and have a pre-determined game plan. Find and know how to contact conference support staff at a moments notice. Don't let an unscheduled delay disrupt your session and the conference.
3. Make sure you have the speaker's gift ready to present to them immediately after their session.
4. If you have an 8am session, encourage the speaker to give any information to you the day before.

Execution

1. You are responsible to ensure the speaker is on time.
2. Announce the start of the session on time. Announce the agenda and any changes to the agenda for the time you are moderator. Again, do not wait to start. The Conference is on a strict time schedule. It is the audience's job to be on time, and it is your job to have the room and speaker ready for the audience. After announcing any changes in the agenda, begin the speaker(s) introduction and be sure to mention their educational background and any honors and awards bestowed upon them. Don't forget, while summing up, to mention the title of the presentation and lead the audience in a round of applause.

3. After introducing the speaker, remain unobtrusive, but be ready to assist if requested. The audience has come to hear the speaker, not you! After the introduction and the presentation begins, take your seat (do not remain standing) but maintain eye contact so the speaker knows where you are in case they need help. Have a prearranged signal with them so you can silently let them know how much time they have left.
4. Stay on schedule. If questions begin to run over the allotted time, speak up and end the session. Do not hesitate to stop your session and announce that time has expired; you owe your next speaker and their audience punctuality.
5. Announce the time limit of any break before breaking and begin after the break on schedule.
6. Do not allow heckling. It is extremely discourteous and unprofessional. The audience wants to hear the speaker, not some clown who wants to tell everybody how much they know about the topic. Moderate the questioning to provide equal time for different questions. Determine if your speaker will remain during breaks or after the sessions to answer more questions. Make certain the audience has the opportunity to obtain handouts if they are provided. Do ask the presenter to repeat questions for the benefit of those who may not have heard the question. Lead the applause when the speaker has concluded.

After

1. Be sure to present the speaker their gift from MEHA.
2. Determine if your speaker needs help after the presentation to affect an exit. Do not allow knots of hangers-on to interfere with your speakers exit or interfere with the next presentation. Help your speaker collect their equipment, slides, laptop, extra handouts, etc.
3. If your presenter is an out-of-state speaker and is leaving the conference soon after their presentation, make sure they are all set with everything they need. Offer to help them check out of the hotel and make sure they know where they are going.
4. If you have trouble during a session, ask for assistance from a Planning Committee member.

Summary

Be brief, be direct, and be seated. Get your audience in, get through the presentation, and get them out on time.

Thank you for your service to MEHA!
